CHESTER WATER AUTHORITY REPRESENTS PENNSYLVANIA IN NATIONAL WATER TASTE TEST

Chester, PA – July 31, 2015: The Chester Water Authority (CWA) was a recent participant in a national water taste test held at the American Water Works Association’s (AWWA) national convention in Anaheim, California. Now in its 11th year, AWWA’s “Best of the Best” Tap Water Taste Test gave participants from across the country and from the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico an opportunity to showcase the high quality of drinking water that they provide to their customers. Although CWA did not win this competition, we were proud to be nominated as the Pennsylvania representative. Congratulations to the Big Sky County Water and Sewer District from Big Sky, Montana for claiming the “Best of the Best” award.
